Editor's Note

Dear Reader:

It is with great pleasure that we, the students of E.P.B.C. present to you the Torch for 1966. We trust that you will find each page informative and inspirational as you see us about our daily activities on and off campus.

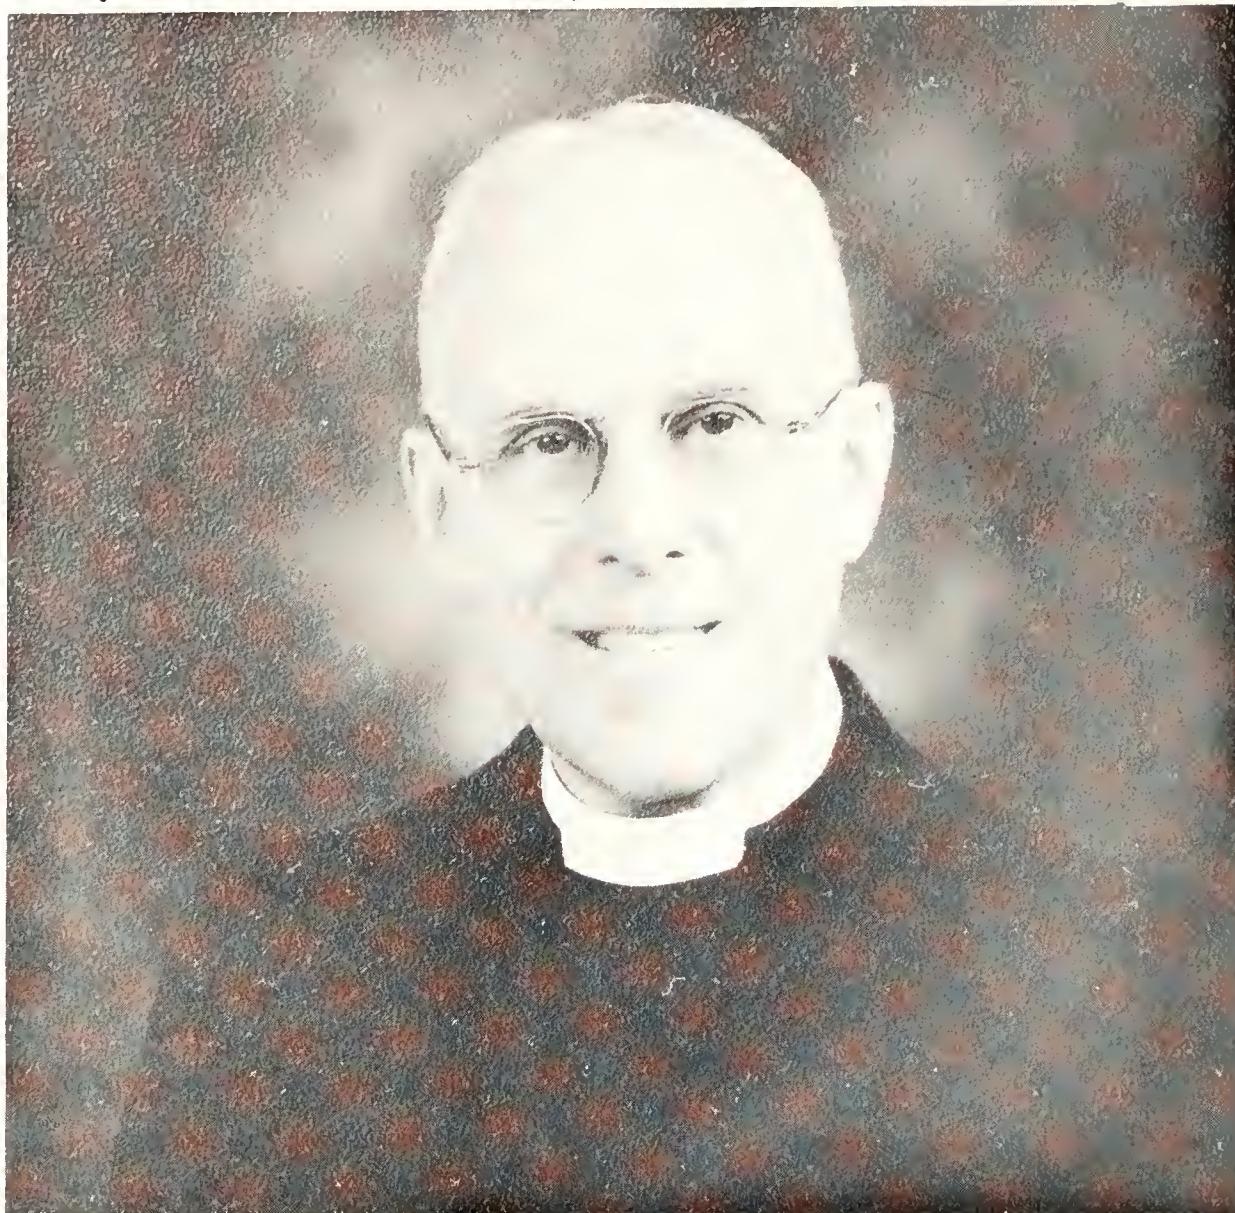

To the wives of three former Presidents, Mrs. M.V. Swanson, Mrs. W.H. Found and Mrs. C.B. Smith, to the General Superintendant of P.A.O.C. - Rev. T. Johnstone, to the Chairman of the Board of Directors - Rev. R.A. Bombay and the Director of Bible Colleges - Rev. C.H. Stiller, I give a sincere word of thanks. The time and effort taken from their busy schedules to prepare articles of instruction, exhortation and inspiration is greatly appreciated.

I would also like to thank each student for his and her co-operation in preparing our book and I would like to say a special thank you to each one on the Torch Staff for their untiring efforts in each phase of the yearbook work which have made it a success this year.

Each page has been prepared with the prayer that it will attract people to the Christ we serve, and influence youth to accept the global call of God to reach the souls of men. The task is greater than ever before and the time is shorter as God's plan for our world, time and eternity, speeds onward unimpeded.

May you be challenged to work with more diligence and dedication for the Lord after you have closed the cover of this book. God bless you now as you leaf through its pages.

Stayne Werner

Dedication

In the person of Dr. J. Eustace Purdie, stands a worthy veteran of the Cross.

Through his untiring labour in instructing young people in the Word of God, Dr. Purdie has earned a unique place as a senior statesmen and dean in Canadian Pentecostal theological teaching.

It is with deep gratitude that we, the students of Eastern Pentecostal Bible College, now use his wise and comprehensive curriculum for our study in God's Word.

Although Dr. Purdie is now in his 86th year, his zeal for the Lord persists, and he may still be found proclaiming the blessed message to a needy world. We certainly appreciated his ministry to us this year, which challenged us to a closer walk with God.

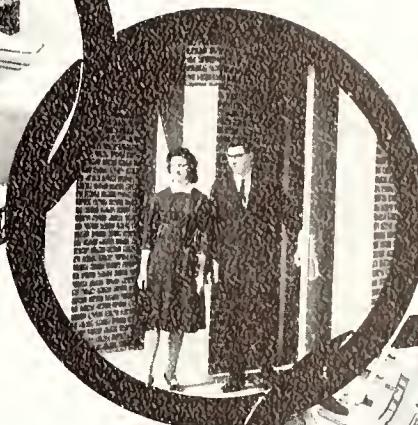

Thus, to the Dean of Canadian Pentecostal Bible Colleges, with sincere appreciation we dedicate the Torch of 1966.

WE BELIEVE IN .....

1. The verbal inspiration of the Scriptures, the only infallible authoritative Word of God.
2. The only living and true God, eternally existent in three persons: Father, Son and Holy Spirit.
3. The Creation of man by God; man's total depravity through sin.
4. The deity of Christ - His virgin birth, true humanity, stainless nature and sinless life.
5. The vicarious substitutionary blood atonement of our Lord Jesus Christ, a satisfaction to divine justice accomplished on the cross.
6. The literal bodily resurrection of our Lord's body out from among the dead.
7. Justification by faith in the person and work of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ; regeneration by the Holy Spirit absolutely essential to salvation.
8. The victorious life, sanctification, approaching by faith our identification with Christ in death, burial and resurrection (Romans 6:6, 11).
9. The Baptism of the Holy Spirit for enduement of power (Acts 1:8).
10. Divine Healing and health for our physical bodies.
11. The pre-millennial coming of our Lord and the resurrection of the saints followed by the reign of Christ for one thousand years.
12. The Church of Jesus Christ an organism composed of all believers in Christ; two sacraments, Baptism and the Lord's Supper.

"Men do not light a lamp and put it under a bushel, but on a stand and it gives light to all."

The words of Christ from Matthew 5 seem so appropriate when we think of the class of the Illuminators. An Illuminator speaks of one who casts a light, and this class, as all the others that have gone before and will follow after, goes with the desire to become allight unto mankind lost in the darkness of sin. To them the admonition of the Scriptures is "Do not hide it under a bushel." Whether the bushel is self-afacement; fear of man; sin that would dim and dull his testimony and witness; or any one of the many things that he might pick up, the Illuminator or light-thrower must always be found in a place where he can cast a light for all. This is the lampstand of public testimony and witness, making known wherever we are, whose we are, and whom we serve. Too often it seems so much easier to hide under the bushel of silence and thus avoid the ridicule and mockery of the world. But, doing this, an Illuminator does not live up to his name.

The words of Christ continue, "Let your light so shine before men that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father." That, of course, should be the object and aim of the Illuminator. He should shine, and be allight before men, of such character that, not he, but God is glorified. The light the Illuminator shows does not originate in himself, but comes from God; therefore, the light he shows must direct attention to God and not to self. It should be of such purity, brilliance, and steadfastness, that it will bring great glory to God.

Illuminators, may you truly be as He said: "The light of the world."

Rev. C.H. Bronsdon

"Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven." Matthew 5:16.

ILLUMINATORS, Torches, Light Bearers, you are called of God to bear the light of life and love. To you He commissions, "Let your light so shine before men." You have chosen a great name, Illuminators to bear the Light. You are the lamps. The "oil for the light," the Holy Spirit, is within; and He shall glorify the Christ. The lamp is not for publicity but must bear the responsibility of letting the Light, the true Light shine. He, the Light of the world, is for publicity.

What a seasonable exhortation - "Let your light so shine" - in this dark world of sin. The value of light is illumination. Light dispurses in part the surrounding darkness. Let the light of your edifying conversation; the light of your faithful and zealous service; the light of your holy and consistent conduct, shine in the darkness of this world.

"God who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, hath shined in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ."

There are four things necessary in order that a lamp may eminate light properly. It must be --

- (1) LIGHTED - We cannot light our selves. Only God can light us.
- (2) SET - Not under a bushel, but in a prominent place so as to shine for useful purpose.
- (3) FED - Continually day by day. Be filled with the Spirit and His Word.
- (4) TRIMMED - Cutting off what would hinder the brightness of the flame.

God has lighted your candle. Let your light shine where it may be seen. May your lamp be filled with the oil of the Spirit and your light be bright always.

Dr. C.A. Ratz

• "Light is good." This is the divine declaration. When God speaks, "Let there be light," we are immediately impressed with the importance of light. Light divides, penetrates, brings to life, and illuminates. You are God's illuminaries; God's lights to penetrate the gathering darkness. Light is always more appreciated when it is contrasted to darkness. Let your light shine that those who walk in darkness may see the light of God and be gathered to safety at the cross.

The lamps of the ancient Hebrews were of various forms and were made from clay, terracotta or bronze. The fuel was olive oil, although pitch, tallow and wax were also used. They were kept burning all night. A constant light in the night was a sign of prosperity, but a darkened house denoted the extinction of its former occupants.

As the light of the sun is important to all life, so you are vitally important to let the light of the gospel shine through you. You will shine when the darkness seems impossible to penetrate. You will be radiant when the clouds blot out the sun. You will brighten and encourage some struggling soul; not because you are great or successful, but because you are shining.

Hold the standard high that you may be counted worthy to be a light-bearer for Him "who called you from darkness to light." It is the will of the "Father of lights," that you go forth with confidence in Him, who caused you to shine. Keep your light shining until the day you enter the city of God, where the Lamb is the light thereof.

Rev. V.G. Brown

Word to the Grads

REV. T. JOHNSTONE

General Superintendent

One of the most wonderful and beautiful creations in the world is light. It is one of the most striking emblems of the Deity. "God is light" - He is described as the Father of Lights. From Him all light emanates. He is the great moral sun of the universe, whose radiant beams fill heaven with glory and earth with mercy, love and grace.

Jesus, "in whom all the fulness of the Godhead dwells bodily," is represented as "The Light of Men" and elsewhere as "The Light of the World." It is the province of light to illumine and thus make manifest, and it is doubtless that in this sense Jesus is spoken of as "The Light of Men" -- "The Illuminator."

As such, Jesus made manifest the true character of God. He revealed Him in His graciousness, greatness and glory. He placed the Father before men in His mercy, goodness and compassion. He gave clear views of His purity, justice and truth.

As such, Jesus made known the true condition of the sinner. He revealed the depravity of human nature and the deceitfulness of the human heart. He laid bare the extreme evil of sin and the total helplessness of man; and the wrath to which His sins had exposed Him.

As such, Jesus made manifest the way of man's recovery and salvation. He showed that His sufferings, death and resurrection were necessary to the remission of sins and acceptance with God. He repeatedly set Himself forth as the one object of saving faith, and the only mediator and advocate with the Father. He brought life and immortality to light.

You then as "Illuminators" are to unite with Him in communicating Himself as "The Light of Men." How? By spreading the light of the glorious gospel of the blessed God. By showing forth the brightness of His example, by the illuminating work of His Spirit. Remember it is the Holy Spirit who takes the things of Jesus and applies them to the minds of the believers. "The God of this world blinds the minds of men." Darkness is the fit emblem of the vicious and malevolent. Light is the emblem of goodness. "God is love," and He sheds His love abroad in the hearts of believers by the Holy Spirit. This is the distinguishing feature of the renewed mind and the sanctified soul. Such souls are to shine forth in truth, beauty, and goodness; as individuals and collectively as a church, showing forth the glory of God before the world.

As Illuminators you have prepared yourselves for a glorious and noble work - shining as lights in the world. Never forget that darkness has not and cannot put out the light that God has lit - shine on till Jesus, the Sun of Righteousness, arises and the day dawns and the shadows shall forever flee away.

The Secret to Power with God

REV. R. A. BOMBAY

Chairman of the Board

The Disciples of Jesus were deeply concerned about the restoration of the Kingdom of Israel. It is quite possible, too, that all of them secretly longed for the same place of power that was expressed by the Mother of the "Sons of Thunder" when she asked that her two sons should sit, one on the right and the other on the left, when Jesus sat upon His throne. It may have appeared to them that Jesus had this in mind when He said, "Ye shall receive power after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you." They were thinking of a kingdom represented by a little strip of land at the eastern end of the Great Sea. Jesus was talking about something far greater than this. He promised power that would make them witnesses to all nations, by which they would conquer in lands not then discovered. He promised a Kingdom that should never be moved.

The Kingdom of which He spoke is not won by the force of arms, nor alas, can it be voted in by democratic processes. Its laws are not framed by the parliaments of men. But this Kingdom has a King! It has an army and it has its laws. The army was to be equipped in power as it walked in upon which the disciples were to receive the Holy Ghost.

HERE LIES THE SECRET!

If obedience is the condition upon which the Holy Ghost is given, then continuing obedience to the Commander must ever be the watchword for continuing power in the Holy Ghost. Obedience begins by a total submission to God. It means becoming the love-slave of Jesus Christ. Those who would have power to preach, to cast out devils, to heal the sick, and to have authority in the Church, must first submit to the supreme Lordship of Jesus.

Who are we to pit our reasoning against His commands? Why should we call Him Lord and do not the things that He says? He did always the things that pleased His Father. We attempt to evade by explaining that Jesus didn't really mean what He said but that there was some other meaning than the plain truth He taught. Is it any wonder that our prayers and motions are as fruitless as the incantations of Baal's prophets on Mount Carmel? Accompanying the simple prayer of Elijah was his assertion, "I am thy SERVANT, and I have done all these things at THY Word." Elijah got the answer!

It is not only in the great crises of life that we must obey. It is in the daily walk; the life at home with the family, in business, in the secret place, that we obey God. It is not sufficient that we should know the will of God; we must do it!

The Duke of Wellington, the Iron Duke, stated that it was not necessary to prove the worth of Missionary endeavour; it was sufficient that the Great Commander has said, "Go ye." God only goes with those who GO!

Call to Dedication

REV. C. H. STILLER
Home Missions & Executive Director of Bible Colleges

How might we define dedication? There are words found in the English language synonymous to the word, but they seem to fall short of what is implied and exemplified in the lives of many who are completely devoted and abandoned to a cause or person.

Dedication, as related to the Christian, could be defined as a recognition of Christ's Lordship over the whole of one's personal, social and intellectual life. It is therefore a setting apart in consecration to God. We may think of dedication of a building for no other purpose than service to God. To you and I, as Christians, it means giving ourselves, and a true practical obedience to His commandment, "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thine heart;" and as it relates to the New Testament exhortation, "Present your bodies a living sacrifice .... acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service." And again, "Ye are no longer your own, therefore glorify God in your bodies."

As you study the long history of the Church of Jesus Christ, you thrill to the many on God's honour roll of heroes, remembering dedication in its highest form and loftiest ideals. Men and women, who in dedication, gave up their own wishes, dreams and ambitions, becoming completely subservient to God's will. As it was prophesied of Jesus our Lord, "Lo I come to do Thy will," it can be said of these. So the annals of history are replete down to this twentieth century with those of whom the world is not worthy and will continue until Jesus comes.

We see them at our altars, eyes tear filled, hearts tender, wills surrendered, saying and meaning it, "I will go where You want me to go, dear Lord;" and we see the fire of God's great consuming passion for lost humanity fall and the dedication is consummated. So they go; to the mission field at home and overseas, cherished dreams and ambitions reduced to ashes on God's altar, but with a peace and joy found in total surrender and unqualified commitment.

Dedication as it relates to you and I must be a daily experience where we establish an altar of commitment and surrender to God's claims and purposes for us. We are assured then of a service for God that is not a burden, but a thing of transcending glory and blessing. We live a life that is rewarding and fulfilled. We share in His redemptive work, freeing men from sin's shackles and lifting the heavy burden of guilt from them, to enjoy the freedom of God's children.

The call to dedication rings loud and clear throughout Holy Writ, and is spoken to us by the still small voice of His Spirit, beseeching us, "Give Me thine heart." Before us lies a future of opportunity, limited only by our unwillingness to surrender. May you as graduates of Eastern Pentecostal Bible College know the full joy and blessing of true dedication.

OUR DEANS

Dean of Men

Rev. E. McNutt, after two years experience, is still getting more acquainted with his new position as Dean of Men. It is said that "experience is the best teacher," and Rev. McNutt is finding this so. Never before did he realize how frustrating and nerve-racking, yet humorous, this job could be. He has found that human personalities differ as much as day and night and that human relationships can be very complicated. Many of us students have gone to him for advice and he has always given hours of his time with devoted interest and concern for our problems. We are proud of our Dean and respect him for his loyalty and dedication to his ministry during our college years. He is just what we need; solid, trustworthy, and a man of spiritual insight and desire. Thank you Dean for being there when we needed you.

Dean of Women

Mrs. Atter has capably fulfilled her duty as Dean of Women for the past nine years, making college home away from home. She has shown personal concern for each student and is always ready to help when she can. She never fails to take every situation to the Lord in prayer whether it be great or small. Her office requires much of her and each year she gives her very best to the ministry she has in college life. Thank you Mrs. Atter for your dedication and concern for our lives and may God's blessing and strength be yours in the future.

Grads

Congratulations on Twenty - Five Years of Service

After graduating from High School Dr. Ratz attended Western Bible School in Winnipeg, Man., graduating in 1932.

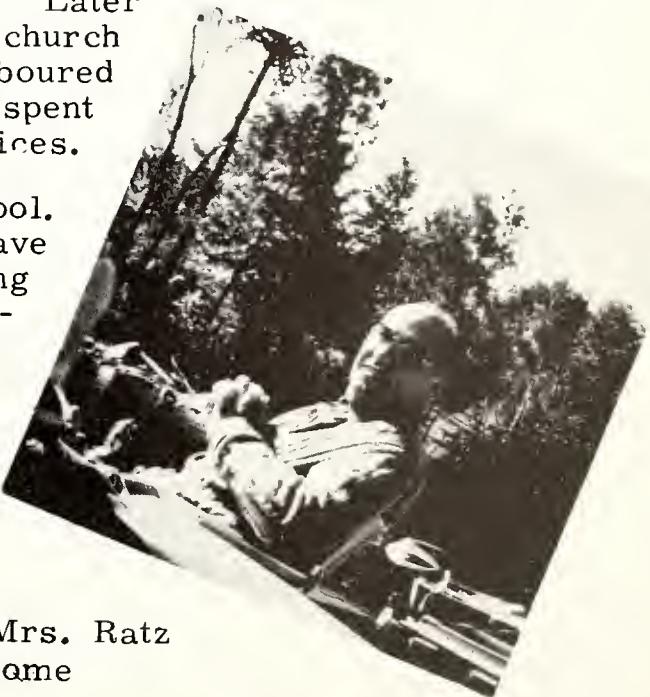

Following graduation Dr. Ratz by request, through the college, went to Warren, a small town between Sudbury and North Bay. Arriving there with only 50 cents, he found that the invitation had to be cancelled. Eventually, he obtained a small room for $5.00 a week. Here he stayed while he held three weeks of services. The first Saturday night, he sang solos in front of the town hotel until a small crowd gathered and then he preached and invited them over to services to be held in the old community hall. The first Sunday night a prospector's wife was saved and became the pianist for the remainder of the campaign. Later he pioneered in Castleton and organized the building of the church there. Many similar experiences accompanied him as he laboured in the pastoral field for seven years. Then two years were spent in engagements at Bible Conferences and Evangelistic Services.

In 1941 Dr. Ratz joined the faculty of this Bible School. This means that every graduating class of this college have been privileged to sit under his anointed ministry. During this time he has taught all but three subjects on our curriculum. His untiring labours have meant much in every department of the school.

Enjoying Sneak Day

For 25 years Dr. Ratz has kept his shoulder to the wheel and we, the 25th Graduation Class, are honoured to have him as our Honourary Class Member. We, as a representative of all those who have passed through the doors of this college, would like to say, "God bless you, Dr. Ratz, and may you have many more fruitful years of ministry for our Saviour, Christ Jesus.

Sheila Lewis

Johannesburg, Transvaal, South Africa
Valedictorian

Sheila came to know the Lord at an early age and later, during special meetings held by an American missionary, she felt the call of God on her life. After completing two and one half years of clerical work, she sailed for Canada and entered E.P.B.C. for the fall term of '63.

During her stay here, Sheila has been very active in extra-curricular work. She is literary editor of the Torch, leader of the African Prayer Band and has done a wonderful work among the women of Curve Lake in their W.M.C. meetings. She has seen the Lord move in the salvation of souls in the Bible Club of which she is leader.

Her sincere personality and leadership has been a blessing to our class.

Sheila is interested in further education but would prefer to enter the full time service if the Lord should so lead.

Robert Briand

Toronto, Ontario
Graduation Speaker

Bob was raised in a Roman Catholic home in Sydney, Nova Scotia. He spent five years in a Roman Catholic orphanage. When he grew older he took up prize fighting and came to Toronto ambitiously hoping to find success. He entered pro-boxing.

In spite of this success, he was very lonely and dissatisfied. One day a Pentecostal youth invited him to a Youth for Christ meeting. For the first time he attended a Protestant service. After attending further Protestant services for six months, Bob accepted Christ as his Saviour.

Bob originally came to college as a member of the "Evangel" class. He then worked for one year and returned becoming a member of the "Sowers" class. Between his second and third year, he finished high school and this year became a member of the "Illuminators" class. In college he has done much preaching on assignments and is a student council member.

He plans to continue his education and earn a degree, after which he will go into full-time ministry.

Rebecca Blubaugh

Cumberland, Maryland U.S.A.
Baccalaureate Speaker

Youth Camps have been an important tool in the hand of the Lord in regard to Becky's life. After her conversion it was at Youth Camp that she received the baptism of the Holy Ghost. At a later camp she received her call to full-time service for the Lord.

Knowing that the Lord had called her, Becky still persisted in wanting to follow a business career after High School graduation. Fortunately towards the end of the summer 1963, Becky yielded to the Lord. Although the commencement of college was only a few weeks away, the Lord made it possible for her to attend that year.

Becky has worked in the college office during her three years of school, but yet she has found time to be a Bible Club leader. She also assisted in Torch and Radio work as a typist.

Next year she hopes to attend Central Bible College to prepare for mission work abroad.

Thomas Wright

Oshawa, Ontario
Baccalaureate Speaker

Tom came to us from the Byng Ave. Assembly in Oshawa. He has known the privilege of being brought up in a Christian home where he found Christ as personal Savior at an early age.

After completing his Junior Matriculation, Tom worked for one year and then followed God's call to college. While Tom has been with us he has used his vocal ability; as a soloist, in a trio, in Ensemble and in Radio work. This year he is Vice-President of the Student Council and Business and Advertising Manager for the Torch.

Myrtle Wesley

Westmount, Quebec

God, in answer to her mother's prayers, healed Myrtle of cancer of the throat in 1957. Still Myrtle lived a backslidden life desiring to become a success in the business world.

It was on June 8, 1962 that Myrtle came back to the Lord through the ministry of Dr. Hyman Appelman.

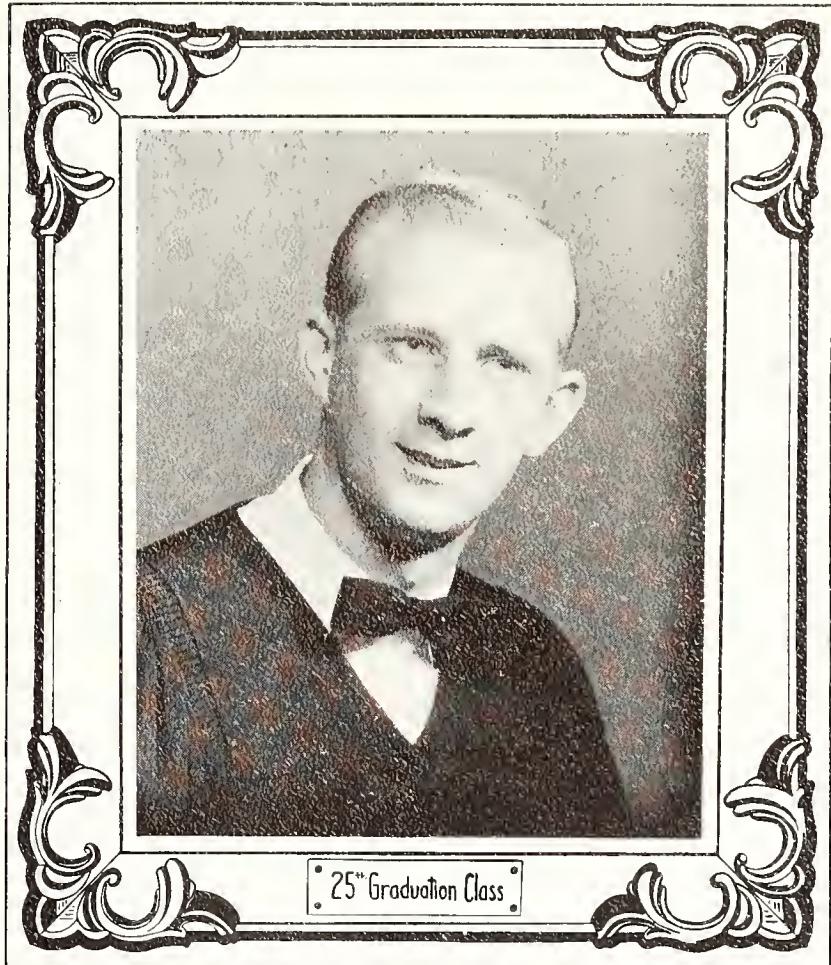

Shortly before receiving the baptism of the Holy Spirit, God again healed her of a heart condition. Myrtle is a testimony to the Lord's healing power.

Her future, on completing Bible School, is in the Lord's hands. Her desire is to do whatever He wills.

I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service.

And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God.

Romans 12:1, 2

Willard Whitman

Frankford, Ontario

Prior to Bible College, Willard attended high school, working at different part-time jobs. His future plans then were to make the secular work his career.

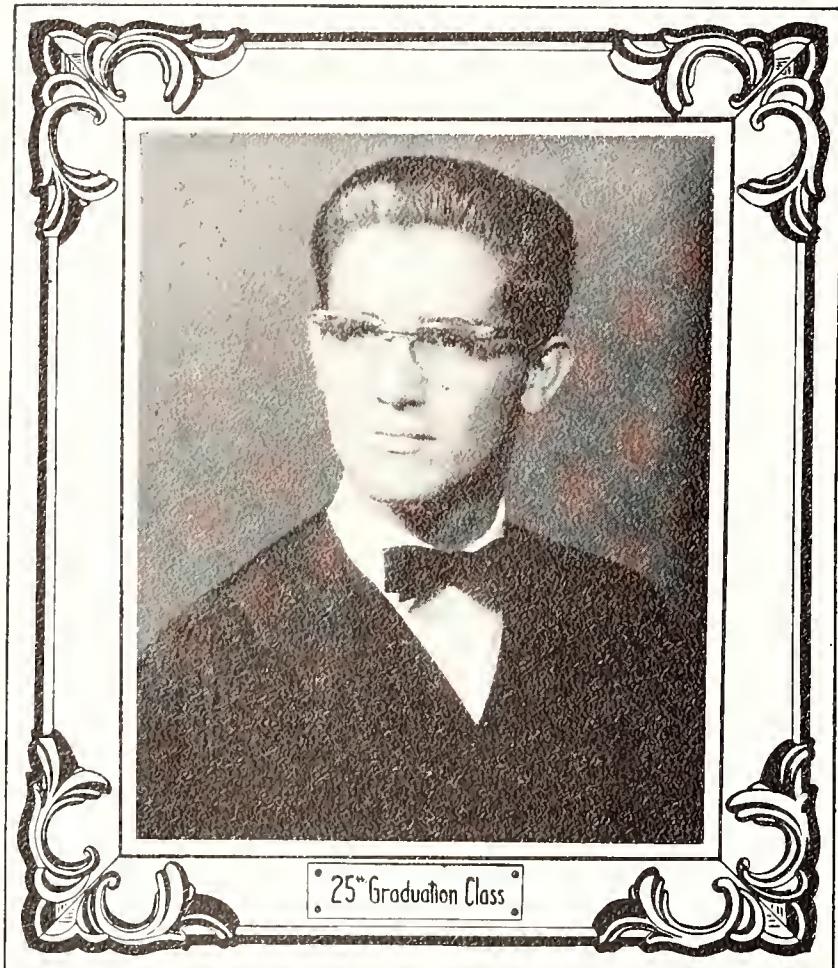

However, one night as he returned home from a Christ's Ambassadors rally, the Lord called him to dedicate his life for full-time service.

Willard has been actively engaged in Bible Clubs, Radio Choir and has held a position on the Social Committee. In sports, he has taken part in baseball and hockey.

During his third year of college he has assisted in the Frankford Church. He, along with his wife, plan to go into full-time ministry as the Lord leads.

But he knoweth the way that I take: when he hath tried me, I shall come forth as gold.

Job 23:10

Samuel Winsor

Corner Brook, Newfoundland

The baptism of the Holy Ghost influenced Sam in coming to college. Sam comes from a Christian home, and thanks God for this godly heritage. He has always felt the tug of God to full consecration in God's work but for a while he delayed. Sam worked over a year in Clark Steamship Lines -- Western Terminals Ltd. He thought of working a second year before coming to college but upon receiving his baptism in the Holy Spirit in March of 1963 he decided definitely to prepare himself for service.

Sam is director of Bible Clubs this year and is active in the Alderville Indian Work and visitation.

His desire is to go into pioneer work in Newfoundland if the Lord does not open the door to future education and a degree.

In thee, O Lord, do I put my trust: let me never be put to confusion. Psalm 71:1

WILL YOU GO?

*Souls are now crying
In sin they are dying
Will you go, will you go?*

*The need is increasing
The workers decreasing
Will you go, will you go?*

*Though hard His commission
His Word is sufficient
Will you go, will you go?*

*He needs you this hour
He'll give you the power
Will you go, will you go?*

*Time now is fleeting
For men God is seeking
Will you go, will you go?*

*Darkness is falling
The Master is calling
Will you go, will you go?*

*In love He sought me
In love He bought me
Lord I'll go, yes I'll go.*

*With my Savior beside me
With my Lord to guide me
Lord I'll go, yes I'll go.*

David Hardy

Peterborough, Ontario

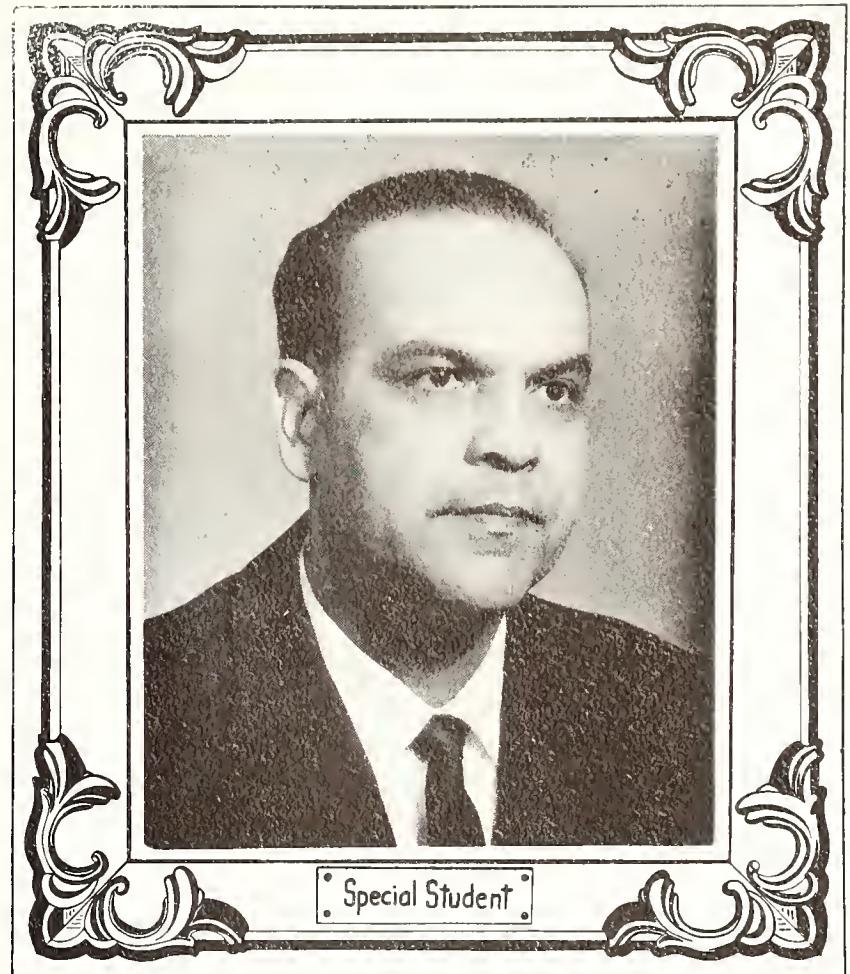

David has lived a Christian life since early childhood due to the seed sown by his faithful parents who were then ministering in Kirkland Lake.

Over the years the calling of God deepened in his life bringing him to college for a two-year special course.

In this special course Dave has found himself quite busy with studies and yet has found time for visitation work and playing in the school orchestra.

Before coming to college he taught in northern Ontario in conjunction with pioneer work.

Eventually he hopes to teach in a Bible School at home or abroad.

Denzil Wolfe

Harrow, Middlesex, England

Denzil was born in India of English parents. Six and a half years ago he and his entire family accepted Christ as their Saviour after God healed him of Coronary Thrombosis. One year later Denzil, his wife and three children moved to England where they made their home in Harrow, Middlesex. In London, Denzil had an excellent job as Manager of Information Services of an International Technical publication to the engineering trades -- but still the call of God rang down within his heart.

Circumstances, brought about by the will of God, then permitted him to enter college, where, with the co-operation of his family, Denzil has completed a special two-year course. He prays the Lord will send him into the mission field and possibly to teach in Bible Colleges abroad as the need arises.

After graduation he will be returning to his family in England, only as he hopes, to collect them and move on to the Far East (India in particular) to work for the Lord his Master.

There is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

Romans 8:1

ILLUMINATORS' CHORUS

*Guide our steps, Oh Lord, each day, as we walk the narrow way
And do our best to shine for Thee, let come what may.
Let our light so shine for men, that they come and enter in,
Into this light that Thou didst give to fallen man.*

Jehovah lives! He reigns!

*Lord, that we may contend for the faith, once delivered to the saints,
And shed abroad the Light of life that dwells within.
Let us radiate Thy Love
Illuminate us from above
And shine thru us that men may know and be set free.
Illuminate we pray!*

Chorus:

*This light, oh Lord, we pray
May we use to light the way
So that we may illuminate a sin dark world
Help us to do what Thou would'st do
And to say what Thou would'st say
That some lost soul will see the Light,
And find the way.*

*Stir me, oh, stir me, Lord, I care not how;
But stir my heart in passion for the world.
Stir me to give, to go, but most to pray;
Stir, till the blood-red banner be unfurled
O'er lands that still in heathen darkness lie,
O'er deserts where no cross is lifted high.*

*Stir me, oh, stir me, Lord, till all my heart
Is filled with strong compassion for these souls,
Till Thy compelling "must" drives me to prayer;
Till Thy constraining love reaches to the poles,
Far North and South, in burning deep desire;
Till East and West are caught in love's great fire.*

*Stir me, O Lord! Thy heart was stirred
By love's intensest fire, till Thou did'st give Thine only Son, Thy best-loved One,
E'en to the dreadful Cross that I might live.
Stir me to give myself so back to Thee
That Thou can'st give Thyself again through me.*

*Stir me, oh, stir me, Lord, for I can see
Thy glorious triumph-day begin to break;
The dawn already gilds the Eastern sky!
O Church of Christ, Awake! Awake!
Oh, stir us, Lord, as heralds of that day!

REDEMPTION

Student Body Message

Redemption Planned

(Winning article from the junior class written by Rosalind Kerr for the Torch literary contest)

The Calvary road did not begin at Pilate's Judgment Hall when he declared above the cries of the fanatical mob, "Take ye him and crucify him for I find no fault in him" (John 19:6). Jesus Christ was "a lamb without blemish and without spot, who verily was foreordained before the foundation of the world." (I Peter 1:20).

Long before man was formed, before the universe came into existence, before angels were created, God appointed His Son to be the perfect sacrifice - the Lamb of God. In God's mind, Christ was already slain. He was already chosen as Redeemer of mankind. The plan of REDEMPTION was devised.

Man disobeyed his Creator and suffered the consequences, but he was not beyond hope. God gradually began unfolding REDEMPTION'S plan patiently teaching men that no price short of blood could free them.

As far back as the Garden of Eden, God established the principle of sacrifice. He made coats of skins to clothe Adam and Eve, necessitating the slaying of innocent animals. Prior to this, God gave the first announcement of the Redeemer -- "It (the woman's seed) shall bruise thy head (Satan's) and thou shalt bruise his heel." (Genesis 3:15)

Adam and Eve were driven from the Garden, but I am sure they never forgot that first sacrifice on their behalf. Surely man often presented similar sacrifices to God on behalf of his sin.

We meet Adam and Eve's two sons, Cain and Abel, offering of their substances to God. Abel offered a sacrifice of blood following the redemptive pattern. Sin deserved death and could be covered only by guiltless substitution, for "without the shedding of blood there is no remission."

After the flood, the first thing Noah did was to build an altar and offer thanks to Jehovah -- God of Redemption. The shedding of blood was still necessary after the flood; ever telling of the message of the promised Christ.

Even though the memory of God's judgment upon a sinful world was ever present, man slipped into sin again. God chose a peculiar race of people through which the Messiah should come -- the Jewish nation. Upon Abraham was placed the responsibility and task to head this nation. God said and repeated many times, "In thee shall all the families of the earth be blessed."

Abraham built many altars unto the Lord, all part of the redemptive revelation. But what we remember most about this friend of God was the day God said, "Abraham, take now thine only son Isaac whom thou lovest and offer him for a burnt offering." (Genesis 22:2) Just before Isaac would have been sacrificed, the angel of the Lord intervened and a ram, nearby, was offered instead. Isaac represented the guilt of a nation and the ram, a type of Christ substituted for the guilty and condemned. Abraham caught a vision of Christ and His atoning work, as God thus provided a substitutionary offering.

God's promise to Abraham was repeated to Isaac and Jacob, and the seed chosen began to spread as the dust of the earth. The children of Israel increased in Egypt and were groaning under the hand of Pharaoh when Moses came on the scene. "Let my people go." But Pharaoh refused. Finally God sent word that He would smite the firstborn. The houses of the Israelites which had the blood of a lamb sprinkled on the door posts would be spared, for God had said, "When I see the blood, I will pass over you." (Exodus 12:13) The Passover was instituted, pointing to the Lamb of God which was to take away the sin of the world.

Three months after the Jewish nation had begun its journey to Canaan, God gave instructions for the building of the Tabernacle which clearly portrays God's redeeming presence in the world. The outer court represented the only way to God's presence through Jesus Christ.

The brazen altar with its sacrifice was a type of the redeeming work of Christ, who carried our iniquities on the Cross. The High Priest who offered, once yearly, an expiation for the sins of the people, pointed forward to our Great High Priest to come, who offered the sacrifice once for all. The scapegoat spoke of blood shed for the guilty and Christ, the sin-bearer.

The many sacrifices which were established were imperfect shadowings of the future Sacrifice. Atonement was only temporary and was frequently repeated, constantly bringing forth the message of man's guilt, divine justice, God's mercy and prefiguring the perfect sacrifice of Christ. The innocent, spotless one suffered, was slain, died in the guilty one's place, loaded with sin. What a picture of our Redeemer's precious sacrifice on Calvary.

Many prophets spake concerning the coming One who would be a substitute for sinners. Isaiah writes that Christ was despised, rejected of men. He bore our griefs, carries our sorrows. He was wounded for our transgressions, bruised for our iniquities, led as a lamb to the slaughter. A Man of sorrows -- Hallelujah, what a Saviour!

"These all died in faith, not having received the promises but having seen them afar off and embraced them." (Hebrews 11:13) Faith in God's divine promise was required of men.

Though Satan tried often to thwart God's plan, he could not for Christ was already slain. REDEMPTION had been planned.

Redemptive footprints are clearly seen throughout the Old Testament. Every sacrifice was a step along the road to Golgotha. God knew that Christ was to be His Messiah and His Lamb. REDEMPTION was planned in eternity.

Redemption Accomplished

(Winning article from the freshman class written by Dudley Reid for the Torch literary contest)

In the beginning the Living Word was in existence, He was with the Creator at the beginning of time and He commanded the earth and all the infinite constellations of the heavens to come into being. This great One, Jesus the Christ, came to this earth in human likeness, taking the form of a servant. He did not choose a royal palace as His birth-place but was born of a virgin in a stable, a place where beasts themselves bring forth their young. Thus the consummation of the plan of REDEMPTION began to be woven as a silver thread in the fabric of history in Bethlehem's manager.

Jesus the child grew in maturity and did His Father's will from an early age (Luke 1:80; 2:49). When He reached full maturity and manhood, He was tempted in all points like we are, yet was without sin. In the wilderness our Lord was subjected to similar seductive tactics as was the "first Adam" in the garden, but He, "the Sun of Righteousness," was victorious! Christ overcame the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes and the pride of life, that we might have the estate restored to us that was lost in Adam's fall.

Though He was the Son of God, He made it a practise to hold communion with His Father in prayer. In the fullness of time Jesus went, as was His habit, to the Mount of Olives and falling down on His knees prayed thus: "Father if thou be willing, remove this cup from me, nevertheless, not my will but thine be done," (Luke 22:42) and in agony He prayed earnestly and sweat, as it were, great drops of blood that fell down on the ground. The agonizing thought of having His fellowship with the Father broken and bearing our sin in His own body was almost too much for Him and an angel came and strengthened Him. Though the awful prospect caused Him to cringe; He set His face as a flint and did the will of God. Christ's anticipation of His spotless bride, the Church, and the foreknowledge He had of the satisfaction to be wrought through the travail of His soul, kept Him resolute.

In the same hour that He suffered agony in the garden, they laid hold on Jesus and He was taken to prison and then to the judgment hall. In that hour He was forsaken by all and those that held Him in custody mocked Him and struck Him in the face. He became a "worm and no man, a reproach of men, despised of the people . . . they laughed Him to scorn," (Psalm 22:6,7). They beat Him with many stripes, plucked out His beard, then led Him out of the city to the place called Golgotha, (that is to say a place of a skull); there they crucified Him between two criminals. What divine love stayed the hand of the Father in that hour as the Darling of Heaven's glory suffered at the hand of depraved mankind! What incomprehensible love and dedication effected our most precious REDEMPTION.

Men despised and rejected Him; they turned their faces from the revolting scene of Him bearing our sin and iniquities in His lacerated body. So grotesque was the display and yet so glorious and transcendent in its magnitude, that God commanded the sun not to shine upon the scene and darkness prevailed for about three hours. Thus it was that those who gaped upon Him could no longer behold the sight of the great Sacrifice. God the Father also turned His back on Him; a righteous God could do nothing else at the sight of sin, even if it were His own Son that carried it. Hence came the anguished cry, "My God. My God, why has thou forsaken me?"

(Matthew 27:46). Our Lord knew the meaning of acute grief and sorrow, He became our substitute. Sin, guilt, judgment and God's rejection were His lot, these should have been ours to bear had He not taken our place. He was forsaken that we might be brought into fellowship with the Godhead. His visage was marred more than any other man's, in order that ours may be restored in God's eyes.

From the hideous scene of suffering came the cry: "It is finished." His work having been completed, REDEMPTION ACCOMPLISHED, the ransom paid, He then with confidence commended His Spirit into His ever loving Father's hands. God, in answer to the ever efficacious blood, which had been applied to the mercy seat, rent the veil of the Temple from top to bottom. Thus God exposed the way into the glories of His presence for all who would come to Him by Jesus Christ the Redeemer. All the while this Jesus, the Rose of Sharon, the Lamb of God, hung on the cross, dripping red, sinless, life-blood onto this sin-cursed earth.

On the third day, after burial, Christ arose! God, in the exhibition of His resurrection power, set His seal upon the accomplished work of REDEMPTION, and thus authorised the atoning sacrifice. The Lord Jesus Christ conquered the power of death and the grave. "Oh death, where is thy sting? Oh grave, where is thy victory?" He arose victor over sin and hell, after forty days He ascended to heaven and sat down at the Father's right hand, where He ever liveth to make intercession for us.

When I survey the wondrous Cross
On which the Prince of Glory died,
My richest gain I count but loss,
And pour contempt on all my pride.

See, from His head, His hands, His feet,
Sorrow and love flow mingled down.
Did e'er such love and sorrow meet,
Or thorns compose so rich a crown?

Isaac Watts

Redemption Experienced

(Winning article from the senior class written by Robert Briand for the Torch literary contest)

"God never had a crisis because He always had a Christ," so said G. Cambell Morgan. Redemption was no emergency effort, but was planned before the foundation of the world (Ephesians 1:4, 11).

REDEMPTION is the price that God Himself paid (in Christ) to satisfy His outraged holiness and justice. The Father was the originator of REDEMPTION, the Son was the Executor, and the Holy Spirit was the applier. The victim was Christ, the price was His blood, and you and I are the beneficiaries. Some of REDEMPTION'S benefits we have already experienced, and some we are yet to experience. What are some of the benefits that our present REDEMPTION has bought us?

We who were once out of harmony with God are now brought into harmony with God.
(II Cor. 5:20)

We who once experienced condemnation and separation are now experiencing justification and salvation. (Rom. 8:1)

We who were once aliens and orphans are now experiencing the joys of children and adopted sons. (Eph. 1:4-5)

We who were once afar off now draw nigh by the blood of Jesus. (Eph. 2:13)

We who were once in the kingdom of darkness are now in the kingdom of His dear Son. (Col. 1:13)

We who were once vessels of dishonour are now vessels of honour, sanctified and meet for the master's use. (II Tim. 2:21)

We who were once ruled by the prince of the power of the air, are now labourers together with Him. (I Cor. 3:9)

It is not surprising that the greatest New Testament exponent of REDEMPTION is St. Paul, and though it behooves many modernists to say that he and St. John disagree in their theology we certainly find no trace of such here. St. Paul proclaims that we have salvation right now through Jesus Christ (Romans 6:22), while St. John proclaims just as emphatically, that we may know we have salvation right now (I John 3:2). Notice the present tense that Paul uses when he says "We have REDEMPTION through His blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of His grace" (Ephesians 1:17). REDEMPTION is no cold calculated fact, void of feeling and assurance: for we know we have experienced REDEMPTION. Listen to St. John, "These things have I written unto you that believe on the name of the Son of God; that ye have eternal life, and that ye may believe on the name of the Son of God." (I John 5:13) Yes REDEMPTION is a present day experience as well as an historical fact.

Above, we have been looking at only one side of REDEMPTION; its immediate and present benefits. Now we will look at the other side of REDEMPTION; REDEMPTION in the future. Perhaps the first question that will come to many minds here is, what, is my redemption not complete, am I yet in my sins? No, REDEMPTION is complete, "Christ died once for all." (Hebrews 10:10) Your body, (your flesh) is not yet perfect, for at this very moment it is in a state of corruption, not that your body has not been redeemed, but simply that its REDEMPTION has not been extended to you as yet. Though our souls have been redeemed and have had their "day of REDEMPTION" (Ephesians 4:30) our bodies have not, but will in the future (Phillipians 3:11). Though we have REDEMPTION (Ephesians 1:7) we wait for REDEMPTION (Romans 8:2) though we are sons of God now (Romans 8:1) we await the adoption of our bodies (Romans 8:23).

Among the Romans a man might adopt a child privately, but there was a second adoption when the child was brought before the authorities. His old garments were removed and the father put on him new garments that would be suitable to his new life. So it is with us who have been taken from the lowest ranks of sin. One day our garments of mortality will be removed and our Father will dress us up in a new garment of immortality that will be suitable for our new life.

When will the fullness of our REDEMPTION be experienced? It will be at Christ's second coming. "For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with Him. For the Lord Himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the arch-angel, and with the trump of God; and the dead in Christ shall rise first; Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air" (I Thess. 4:14, 16-17). No longer will we groan inwardly waiting for the REDEMPTION of our bodies, no longer will this body stand in the way of attaining the full manifestation of our adoption, no longer will its lusts and passions war against our spiritual desires, but in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, when the last trump of God shall sound, corruption shall put on incorruption, mortality shall put on immortality, and so shall we ever be with the Lord. "Wherefore comfort one another with these words."

Alumni President Speaks

Welcome Illuminators! Praise the Lord for light in a darkened world. Your ministry is vital. There are still other sheep who will see the 'light' and be brought to safety. We look forward to a long and happy association with you in the work of the Lord.

What a wonderful blessing it is to be in the Lord's will. Walking daily with a keen consciousness of His presence and a sure knowledge of His smile of approval. Surely this is a 'conscience void of offence.'

An open heaven provides unlimited access into His presence. Here is the only place for full development of our possibilities. We are complete only in Him.

This is indeed a challenge! Our ministry as a church or an individual is here brought into proper focus. Total dependence upon Christ! Paul testified to utter weakness in himself but here him glory in the fact, "I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me." Not false piety but startling reality.

May God grant you a rich and wonderful ministry!

Pioneers

(Wife of Rev. J. Swanson, President 1939-40)

Some words immediately start a train of thoughts in one's mind. The word, "Pioneer" is just such a word. Webster in his dictionary says, "a Pioneer is one who builds roads in advance of an army on the march. One who leads the way in any advance or development -- the one who opens up a new unbroken country."

"Pioneers" are men of special characteristics and caliber. They must be men of imagination, vision, and courage. They must have a cause, a goal and a challenge, and be willing to invest their energies, and use all their resources in that cause.

Our great country of America would not be what it is today without "Pioneers." Men had a dream of connecting the Atlantic with the great Pacific Ocean. It took brains, money and many months of arduous labor, but it was accomplished. There were men who dreamed of harnessing electricity, of flying, yes, even circling the earth and walking in space. Many of these things have been accomplished and we are enjoying the luxury of their explorations today.

Greater than the men who pioneered these earthly things, were men who, had a call, a vision, a strong conviction, and not knowing what the future held, stepped out at the voice and call of God.

In Gen. 12:1 -- God said to Abraham, "Abram get thee out of this country and from thy kindred and from thy father's house unto a land that I will show thee." Abraham obeyed and became the great "Pioneer" of all the ages -- leaving behind him wells of water for the thirsty and altars for heathen worshippers.

Time and space will not permit a thorough survey of men who have blazed a trail in response to God's call. But look for a moment to the greatest of all "Pioneers," as I cite Heb. 6:20, "Whither the forerunner is for us entered, even Jesus made an High Priest forever." He pioneered the way. He blazed the trail. He opened up the closed road, that we might boldly march, as a mighty army, through to a life of freedom and liberty.

God's ministers in turn became "Pioneers" in the far flung corners of the earth. Many have hazarded their lives to take the message of deliverance and life to a lost and dying world. They were "Pioneers" for the most important cause on earth, the results of which are of greater magnitude than even that of encircling the globe, walking in space or reaching the moon.

There were "Pioneer" days of Eastern Pentecostal Bible College when dedicated men and women gave of their best, with very little financial returns. They willingly gave many hours of labor, service, study and time, -- some even their lives -- to build a College worthy of the men and women who would enter its doors, to study and prepare for the work to which God had called them. Eastern Pentecostal Bible College has come a long way and made splendid advances, since its opening in the fall of 1939, with an enrollment of forty-five dedicated young people, called the "Pioneers." They opened the way for many students who have followed.

It is to young men and women, who have heard from God, and are willing to blaze trails for the Gospel of Christ, that Bible training has been supplied to prepare and equip them for this gigantic task. May this be the challenge to each student who passes through the doors of this College.

Power for the Task

(Wife of Rev. C. B. Smith, President 1941-44, 1958-61)

"Stephen, a man FULL .... of the Holy Ghost."

One of the outstanding characters in the early church was a man named Stephen. This man faced many of the same responsibilities, the same opportunities, and the same challenges that face the Christian of today. The record of his life as given in the book of Acts reveals that he met the TASK before him with supernatural strength, supernatural wisdom, and a supernatural assurance. Why? -- Because he was supernaturally equipped for the task, he was a man FULL of the Holy Ghost.

Consider briefly the avenues of service that Stephen was called to, for these are the opportunities that present themselves to Christians today. God's plan and provision for Stephen long ago is the same plan, and the same provision that God has for His servants in these last days.

Stephen was first chosen, not to preach, not for any prominent position, but to help in the Benevolent Department, to serve tables and to care for the widows. He was one of seven chosen because he was FULL of faith, and the Holy Ghost. He was completely available and supernaturally equipped for even the humble task.

Then from serving tables he began doing great wonders and miracles. How? -- Because he was a man FULL of faith and power. He became the channel through which the dynamic power of the Holy Spirit could operate in the performance of great wonders and miracles. God still carries on His work today through human channels.

So mightily did the Holy Ghost indwell this man, even his speech was different, they were not able to resist the wisdom and the spirit by which he spoke. Would to God the church of Jesus Christ spoke today in this manner. Not only did Stephen speak with wisdom, he spoke with boldness. His address, given before the council and recorded in the seventh chapter of Acts is a masterpiece. In this, his defence, he revealed that he knew the Scriptures, both historical and prophetic, and fearlessly and powerfully he presented Christ through these. He spoke with such conviction that they were cut to their hearts. This kind of preaching can only be achieved when men speak under the power of the Holy Ghost.

Lastly, he met trial, adversity and death with peace and assurance because he was sustained by the power of the Holy Ghost.

Wherein lies "Power for the Task?" -- grace to serve tables; power to perform wonders and miracles; wisdom to speak with boldness and conviction; fortitude to die a martyr's death? Stephen had this power. He was FULL OF FAITH and the HOLY GHOST. Therein lies our "Power for the Task."

Finding God's Will for Your Life

(Wife of Rev. W. H. Found, President 1951-57)

Is it advantageous to know the will of God for our lives? Is it not enough to have believed on the Name of the Only Begotten Son of God, and to have been anointed of His Spirit for service? May I not choose my way, so long as I serve my God? Will not my service be just as effective wherever rendered?

We are taught by our Saviour to pray, "Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven." Heaven is such because God is the great King, and His subjects are in His likeness, so that all is sweet harmony. If His will is to be done on earth in such a way; then our wills must be in harmony with His great plan.

Of the Saviour Himself it is written, "Lo I come to do thy will O God." In the shadow of the cross, He prayed "If it be possible, let this cup pass from me, nevertheless not my will, but thine be done." That beautiful prayer in John's gospel, chapter seventeen reads, "I have finished the work thou gavest me to do." Then as He was about to expire on the cross, He was able to cry, "It is finished."

The apostle Paul, when first he recognized the Christ, queried, "Lord, what wilt thou have me to do?" During his lifetime he could say with conviction, "Woe is me if I preach not the gospel." He knew his work! At the closing of His life He was able to say, "I have finished my course." What a satisfaction and joy! What an effective, far reaching, and powerful ministry.

The dedication shown in the life of Ruth, the Moabitess, is very inspiring, and God led her to a blessed fulfillment in His will.

We shall find His will as we follow Him in humble dedication, earnestly desiring to serve in His plan. "Ask, seek, knock" and walk! Likely circumstances will guide, confirmed with the still small voice, or it may be the falling of the lot. Remember, "promotion cometh not from the east, nor from the west, nor from the south," but God is the judge.

Sometimes we are tempted to think God's special selection is only for important work, and great people. On the contrary, living and working with the sweet assurance of being in His will, will make any life great, and any work special.

College Life

Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace
whose mind is stayed upon thee.
Isaiah 26:3

Student President

Placing their confidence in the promises of God, the 25th graduating class steps forth from E. P. B. C. into the harvest, "holding forth the Word of Life" (Phil. 2:16). Another class follows and others will follow until Christ returns, preparing themselves to reach the lost and dying. This is why so many hundreds have passed through the doors of our College.

It has been my privilege this year to serve the students as Student Council President. I would like to thank each member of the council and the students in general for their co-operation throughout the year.

The student council is made up of elected representatives from each class, plus a faculty advisor. Its purposes are to represent the students in all matters, to maintain a close relationship between students and faculty, and to promote all student activities and projects.

Through the various committees of the student council, the student body is provided many opportunities of Christian service in the city and throughout the area, whether it be by means of radio, tracts, street evangelism, Bible clubs or weekend assignments.

You will find E. P. B. C. a place where there are many opportunities to prepare yourself for the great work of soul winning. The studies under anointed teachers will take you to great depths in the Word of God; the times of devotion and prayer will draw you closer to the Lord, and the many avenues of Christian Service will provide rich experience in the practical field.

To those who are leaving and to those who follow on, I would remind you of the promise of Jesus to His followers, "Lo, I am with you alway" (Matt. 28:20).

THE LAST WORD

Dear Mom and Dad:

Well we're away from home now and going through many exciting and new experiences as you can well see. We miss you very much.

Never before have we appreciated you more than we do now. Before us lies a great challenge and we must prepare ourselves to meet the task. God calls us unceasingly and we must answer, "Lord here am I, send me." So we are leaving your side to fulfill our responsibility to our generation.

May God bless you and reward you according to His mercy and loving kindness.

Love,
Your son (daughter)

in spirit, serving the Lord

CANADIAN BIBLE SOCIETY

TRANSLATION The Scriptures have been distributed in some 1250 languages. The British and Foreign Bible Society alone has been responsible for 900 of these translation and sister Bible Societies such as the American, Scottish and Dutch have supervised the translation of practically all the other 350.

Today the Bible Society has 4000 translators engaged in the translation of the Scriptures in 500 languages.

PRODUCTION AND DISTRIBUTION It is the Bible Society that is practically the sole source of Scriptures for all missionaries, for the churches and for the people of the world. In Asia, Africa and Latin America 95 per cent of all Scripture distribution is linked with the work of the Bible Society.

It is the Bible Society which is really doing the work!

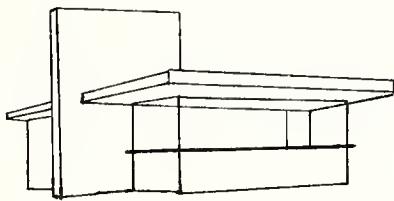

SHORTAGE OF SCRIPTURES With 8000 adults learning to read every hour and world population increasing at the rate of 165,000 per day, the demand for Scriptures is the greatest in history. The demand exceeds the supply.

YOUR HELP NEEDED In 1966 to pay for the cost of the translation and distribution of the Scriptures which are needed in 140 countries the Bible Society requires $6,600,000.00. Will you help?
